

Lynn Fitch
ATTORNEY GENERAL

If You're a Victim of Identity Theft

If you believe that you are a victim of identity theft, complete the following checklist in order to protect yourself immediately against any future abuses of your identity, begin an official investigation of the theft, and repair any damage your credit sustained.

- Contact your local police department and file a report of the theft. Obtain a copy of the report for your records and to assist in clearing your name. Your local police will be your first line of defense. Our office will open the lines of communication and provide assistance as needed with their investigation.
- Contact any creditors of the accounts that you believe have been corrupted or fraudulently opened. Ask to speak with the fraud or security department and inform them of the theft. Immediately close any existing accounts. Follow up the call with a letter.
- Contact the fraud department of one of the three major credit bureaus. Inform them that you are an identity theft victim and that you wish to place a fraud alert on your file, as well as a victim's statement requesting a call to you by the credit bureaus before opening or changing credit accounts. Also, request a copy of your credit report. As a result of this one request, all three major credit bureaus will send you a copy of your credit report. To request a free copy of your credit report go to www.annualcreditreport.com or call Equifax (800) 685-1111, Experian (888) 397-3742 and TransUnion (800) 680-7289.
- File a report with the Federal Trade Commission www.consumer.gov/idtheft or 1-877-438-4338, the FTC's Identity Theft Hotline.
- Complete the enclosed "ID Theft Affidavit" and mail it to:

Mississippi Attorney General's Office
Consumer Protection Division
P. O. Box 22947
Jackson, MS 39225

- Include with your Affidavit a copy of any documents relating to your identity theft including collection letters, police reports and credit reports. Include a Proof of Residency (light bill, gas bill, phone bill, etc.) at the time the theft occurred and a Photo ID. It is imperative that you complete the ID Theft Affidavit and return it along with supporting documents to the address above in order that a criminal investigation may be initiated.

If you need additional assistance, you may also contact the Consumer Protection Division of the Attorney General's Office at 601-359-4230 or 1-800-281-4418.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE ID THEFT AFFIDAVIT

To make certain that you do not become responsible for the debts incurred by the identity thief, you must provide proof that you did not create the debt where accounts were opened or used in your name.

A working group composed of credit grantors, consumer advocates and the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) developed this ID Theft Affidavit to help you report information to many companies using just one standard form. Use of this affidavit is optional for companies. While many companies accept this affidavit, others may require different forms. Before you send the affidavit, ask the company(ies) if this form is appropriate.

You may use this affidavit where a new account was opened in your name. The information will enable the companies to investigate the fraud and decide the outcome of your claim. (If someone made unauthorized charges to an existing account, call the company to find out what to do.)

This affidavit has two parts:

1. ID Theft Affidavit is where you report general information about yourself and the theft.
2. Fraudulent Account Statement is where you describe the fraudulent account(s) opened in your name. Use a separate Fraudulent Account Statement for each company you need to write to.

When you send the affidavit to the companies, attach copies (NOT originals) of any supporting documents (for example, driver's license, police report) you have. Before submitting your affidavit, review the disputed account(s) with family members or friends who may have information about the account(s) or access to them.

Complete this affidavit as soon as possible. Many creditors ask that you send it within two weeks of receiving it. Delaying could hinder the investigation.

Be as accurate and complete as possible and print clearly. You may choose not to provide some of the information requested; however, incorrect or incomplete information will impede the investigation of your claim.

When you have completed the affidavit, mail a copy to each creditor, bank or company that provided the thief with the unauthorized credit, goods or services you claim. Attach to each affidavit a
